To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

Announcements

People are generally aware that in some churches – most notably Roman Catholic – people genuflect (drop to one knee) before entering the pew. What is perhaps less well known is the origin of this practice: it always had to do with whether the Sacrament was on the altar. Since in some churches the Sacrament is always on or near the altar, the people simply genuflected all the time. It wasn't simply a thing to do on entering their pew; it was a reverence toward the Sacrament. The historic rule of thumb – which has largely been forgotten in our day – was that whether one genuflected or merely bowed was determined by whether the consecrated elements of the Sacrament were there or not.

Layman's Guide to the Liturgy: By Parts. – Why do we sometimes kneel and sometimes only bow toward the altar? Pg. 42, para. 3.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday school is right around the corner. We are excited to start Sunday School and have some congregation fun after Bible study and Sunday School. Please join us for pizza, fruit, veggies and root beer floats and then join in on a kickball game, yard games or do a craft or two. If the weather doesn't cooperate for outdoor fun, we will have a lunch and some board games to play inside.

Thank you to everyone for the celebration of my 10th year in the Office of the Holy Ministry. I count it a joy to have served as Good Shepherd's pastor throughout this past decade.

Spiritual Discipline for September: Attend Divine Service and Education Hour every Sunday.

Join us for Bible Study as we begin 1 Timothy.

Bob Anderson's Internment will take place at Camp Ripley on Friday, September 15th, at 1pm.

Birthright will be hosting their state conference at Good Shepherd September 15-16. If anyone is available to open up the building and serve as a contact in the event of need, please talk to pastor.

Good Shepherd's homeschool co-op will be starting tomorrow. Matins is at 8:30am. All are welcome!

Our next men's book study is scheduled for Saturday, September 23. We will begin reading through the book: "No Apologies: Why Civilization Depends on the Strength of Men" by Anthony Esolen. If interested in the book, please let Pastor know.

LWML Salad Supper, Wednesday, September 13th @ 6pm...Women of all ages are welcome. Please bring a salad to share. Contact Gwen Sturrock if you have questions.

Pastor: James J. Stefanie

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God's inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by Grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God's Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; we will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
