Announcements

To our visitors and guests:

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at Good Shepherd in the confession and glad confidence that our Lord, as He says, gives not only bread and wine, but His very body and blood to eat and drink for the forgiveness of sin. In joyful obedience to the clear teaching of our Lord Jesus those are invited to His table who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. They show forth His death until He comes. Because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so are unable to receive the Sacrament are invited to meditate on God's Word in the distribution hymns and pray for the day when divisions will have ceased. You may also come up to the rail and receive a baptismal blessing. Signify this by crossing your hands over your chest. If you have any questions, please feel free to talk to Pastor.

“The black “stole” that a pastor may wear for Matins and Vespers is actually not a stole at all, but is called a tippet. The tippet designates the authority of the pastor to preach, but is not a Eucharistic vestment. That means it is not worn for Holy communion. The stole, on the contrary, is a Eucharistic vestment, and actually is normally supposed to be worn beneath the chasuble, the long flowing poncho-like vestment worn by the celebrant at Holy Communion. This is why stoles come in the colors of the church year, while the tippet does not. Since the stole and chasuble go with the Sacrament, it is best to have them match the color of the altar from which the Sacrament is given. The tippet, on the other hand, is always black, simply designating the preaching office. Hence a tippet is not worn if Matins or Vespers are said or sung without a Sermon. In such cases, only cassock and surplice are to be worn (the black gown with the three-quarter-length white robe over the top). Thus, when at Matins or Vespers you see the pastor wearing the tippet, you know that you will soon be hearing him preach.

Pastor: James J. Stefanie

We, the members of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, believing the Bible to be God’s inspired and inerrant Word, acknowledging that Jesus Christ is Lord, and affirming that we are saved by grace through faith in Him alone, offer the following as our statement of mission:

Empowered by the Holy Spirit and loving our neighbors as ourselves, we, as ambassadors for Christ, must strive to make disciples of all nations; Using the gifts the Lord has given to each of us, we must help the saints to grow in unity of faith through regular worship attendance, the partaking of the Sacraments, the study of God’s Word, and by ministering to the spiritual needs of others; We will persevere in prayer and thanksgiving for all the opportunities and blessings which God places before us.
